

ABSTRACT

A new and distinct Magnolia virginiana var. australis cultivar, named 'Sweet Thing' Magnolia that is characterized by its distinct dwarf, bush-like growth habit, slender, olive green foliage (which remain--even in winter), fragrant flowers and vigorous ability to withstand extreme variations in temperature and moisture.